

Press Release
February 29, 2024, in Verbier

Verbier hosts the Men's Alpine Skiing European Cups from March 4 to 8, 2024

Winter sports enthusiasts and ski lovers are invited to experience a thrilling event as Verbier prepares to host the Men's Downhill and Super-G European Cups from March 4 to 8. This sporting event, organized by the Verbier Saint-Bernard Ski Team, promises fierce competition and breathtaking moments on the heart of Switzerland's largest ski area.

The best European skiers, including local favorite Denis Corthay, will come together to compete on the Attelas slope in Verbier, showcasing their talent and determination. Other World Cup athletes such as Arnaud Boisset, Franjo Von Allmen, James Crawford, Alexis Monney, and Alexander Cameron will also be present.

The Men's Downhill and Super-G European Cups in Verbier will offer five days of intense races, moments of suspense, and an electric atmosphere on and off the slopes!

Programme details :

- Monday 4 March - Super-G
- Tuesday 5 March - Downhill training
- Wednesday 6 March - Downhill training
- Thursday 7 March – Downhill
- Friday 8 March - Downhill

Races and training begin at 10:30am. Join us on the Attelas slope to witness these champions embark on a quest for victory from March 4th to 8th in Verbier!

More information at <https://vsbst.ch>

For all inquiries:

Elie ROSSIER
President
Organization Committee
079 261 98 56

Laurent VAUCHER
CEO
Téléverbier SA
079 233 66 81